

Lesson 47 C Answers for the Review for the test L40-L47

- 1.Scattered garrisons of soldiers, mostly Germans (Hessians)
- 2.In isolated garrisons.
- 3.Attack and take one of these isolated garrisons in order to get supplies, boost the moral of his troops and encourage the Patriots
- 4.Destruction of his army, losing the war, dangers in crossing the icy river, marching at night along an icy snow covered road in very cold weather.
- 5.Personal courage and audacity, boldness, perseverance.
- 6.They attacked the small city of Trenton from two sides. They attacked with great ferocity and outfought the Hessians.
- 7.It encouraged the Patriots filling them with hope that the war could be won.
- 8.The enlistments of his army were about to run out.
- 9.Poor clothing, cold weather, sickness, starvation
- 10.They were going to attack Albany, NY by three different directions and cut the New England states away from the other colonies.
- 11.Albany, New York in the Hudson River valley
- 12.Benedict Arnold
- 13.postpone, one
- 14.British Lt Col Barry St Leger
- 15.Gen Benedict Arnold

16.Gen Howe

17.Gen Howe, Philadelphia

18.Germantown, and Brandywine

19.Gen John Burgoyne

20.He threatened them with Indian attacks

21.Robbing, murdering, scalping, burning

22.Desert the British and go home

23.They were soundly defeated by Patriot militia losing 2000 men

24.two

25.Fear of the Indians

26.Burn bridges, cut down trees to block roads

27.Gen Gates

28.Gen Benedict Arnold

29.the gallant "Ole Wagoner" Daniel Morgan of Virginia!

30.They held the ground at the end of the day,

31.however they suffered terrible losses of officers and men.

32.It was called the Battle of Bemis Heights

33.Lack of supplies, many casualties, few Indian scouts, isolation, no hope of help

34.Attack

35.No, they lost many men and accomplished nothing

36.Gen Benedict Arnold

37.Surrender 5900 soldiers, 600 women and children and much artillery

38.Gen Gates (he did not deserve it)

39.the French made an alliance with the Americans and started war with Britain.

40.His attitude grew very sour and turned into hatred and eventually he became a traitor

41.He had the men build huts, had them drilled under von Steuben, placed Gen Greene in a position of Quartermaster General of the army. This was a thankless position for Gen Greene, but he performed wonderfully.

42.Baron von Steuben a Prussian officer

43.Gen Nathaniel Greene

44.Excellent

45.General Clinton

46.They abandoned Philadelphia and retreated to New York City

47.See outline II of L 44

48.Sea captains who had a license to attack the British shipping.

49.John Paul Jones

50.He had been placed in charge of the fort at West Point (very important) He made plans of the fortification and tried to sell them to the British. He made a lot of money and became a British officer. He fell prey to the sin of pride, greed, and blind ambition

51.Arnold

52.Massacre of the Wyoming Valley in Penn

53. Cherry Valley Massacre

54. Iroquois

55. Iroquois

56. In western Virginia Now Kentucky

57. Cherokee, Creek, Choctaw, Chickasaw

58. Cherokee

59. Dragging Canoe

60. Va, SC, NC, Ga, (now Kentucky)

61. Catawba Valley

62. NC- Brig Gen Rutherford, SC- Maj. Andrew Williamson, Va- Col William Christian

63. Brig Gen George Washington Clark

64. Kaskaskia, Cahokia, and Vincennes

65. British and Huron Indians killed 76 folks at Long Run, Virginia (now Kentucky)

66. An army of Loyalist and Indians attacked Ruddle's Station, offered folks safety if they surrendered. But murdered them all when they did.